

PROGRAM OF THE SECTION ON BACTERIOLOGY

Chairman: C. A. BEHRENS, Purdue University

1. Further studies on the immunology of Hemophilus pertussis. H. M. Powell and W. A. Jamieson, Lilly Research Laboratories, Indianapolis.
2. Serological response to oral immunization against colds. H. C. Allisborough and L. C. Morgan, Lilly Research Laboratories.
3. The epidemiology of Brucella abortus (Bang) infection in cattle. Stanley E. Hartsell, Purdue University.
4. Isolation of bacteria and protozoa from termites. P. A. Tetrault, R. L. Phillips, and W. L. Weis, Purdue University.
5. Rabies, preparation of citrated vaccine. C. A. Behrens, Purdue University.
6. Rabies, immunity by means of purified vaccine. C. A. Behrens, J. L. Reeves, and L. B. Schweiger, Purdue University.
7. Titration of gas gangrene antitoxin by an intracutaneous method. H. D. Piersma, Purdue University.
8. The application of Gibson-Brandt volatile-acid method to acetic and butyric acids in fermentation. P. A. Tetrault and J. Hurwitz, Purdue University.
9. Maintenance of antiseptic action by "Merthiolate" as a preservative. H. M. Powell and W. A. Jamieson, Lilly Research Laboratories.

The title of paper No. 9 was received too late to be included in the program published in advance of the meeting.

Dr. H. M. Powell was elected chairman of the section for 1937.