July 26, 1924.

To the President and Members of the Common Council, City of Indianapolis, Indiana:

Gentlemen—I hereby send to you a budget made up by the different Departments under this administration. I have requested the boards and heads of Departments to make their recommendations just as low as possible and still keep up the progress of the city.

Statement of Tax Levy for 1924, Payable in 1925.

Also fifty cents on each poll for general purposes.

Figuring on the increased valuation the tax levy for 1924, will bring approximately the same amount of money to operate on as last year. The citizens of Indianapolis are clamoring for a lower tax rate and I am going to try to put in effect a lower rate for the coming year.

I believe that the amount received from the above levy is sufficient to run Indianapolis and just as efficient and economical manner as in 1923, and I hope you will give this budget favorable consideration, I am,

Very truly yours,

Mayor.
