Mrs. Teresa Laffey, City Clerk
25th Floor City-County Building
Indianapolis, Indiana

Dear Mrs. Laffey:

In reference to proposed action before the Common Council tonight to repeal the existing "No Parking Anytime" Ordinance on Keystone Avenue from 25th to 34th Street, we request that this letter be entered in the minutes of the Council meeting.

Th existing Ordinance for No Parking Anytime was passed September 17, 1962, at the request of the Board of Public Works to "build-in" the parking restrictions on this official thoroughfare.

This street was widened from a narrow four lanes to provide for four wider moving lanes of traffic, including heavy truck traffic. This heavily traveled artery is on the official truck route and trucks travel at all hours, not just rush hours.

The Board of Works is unanimous in its opinion that Thoroughfares are too expensive to widen to create parking places for automobiles.

The Barton report of 1957, which the Board has followed carefully in developing a Thoroughfare Program, emphasizes the necessity of eliminating curb parking as follows: "As the City of Indianapolis continues to expand, use of all available pavement along the major street systems by moving traffic becomes more and more essential. The present zoning ordinance of the City requires offstreet parking be created for nearly all classes of land use. These provisions should be strengthened and enforced; ultimately there should be no parking permitted at anytime along the major Thoroughfare System."

Similar No Parking restrictions have been built into other streets widened by the Works Board and the unrestricted flow of traffic has soared on these Thoroughfares. Consideration of the repeal of this Ordinance on Keystone Avenue comes at a time when we feel the trend should be the other way, to get more parking off of our thoroughfares.

If this ordinance is repealed by the Council, Keystone Avenue, reconstructed at a cost of $82,501.25, will become (next to 46th Street) the most expensive parking lot built since the construction of the Broad Ripple parking lot over the Canal.

Furthermore, we are faced with a great dilemma in the construction of future thoroughfares. The Board is reluctant to proceed with the widening of thoroughfares when there can be no assurance that the facility may be used for the purpose for which it is designed.

Repeal of this Ordinance, we further feel, would be inconsistent with the passage of the resolution proposed by Councilman Thomas Hasbrook and approved by the Council January 21 proposing a time-table for removing parking on thoroughfares, with merchants and property owners receiving a year's notice to adjust to the parking restrictions.

For the record, the Board of Works protests repeal of this Ordinance and believes such action would not be in the best interests of the entire community.

Yours sincerely,

HUGH G. BAKER, President
Board of Public Works
ELLSWORTH G. MAXWELL,
Executive Secretary
Board of Public Works

STATEMENT FOR THE RECORD, BY THE BUREAU OF TRAFFIC ENGINEERING,

City of Indianapolis, March 18, 1963

The Bureau of Traffic Engineering wishes to make the following statements in opposition to the passage of General Ordinance No. 20, 1963, which repeals the prohibition of parking at anytime along both sides of Keystone Avenue from 25th Street to 35th Street.

This prohibition has been in effect since the passage of General Ordinance No. 83, 1962, by this Council at the meeting of September 17, 1962, which recommendation was sought by the Board of Public Works and indorsed by the Board of Public Safety and the Mayor's Traffic Improvement Committee.

Keystone Avenue is, and for many years has been a principal route for the movement of trucks within the city.

Keystone Avenue is, and for many years has been, an important route for the north-south movement of large numbers of citizens of this city.

Keystone Avenue is, and for several years has been designated and widely publicized as a primary thoroughfare of the Official Thoroughfare Plan of Marion County, intended to be developed and protected for the principal purpose of moving large volumes of mixed traffic on the near east side of the city, for the benefit of the entire community rather than a segment thereof.

Keystone Avenue is, and for several years has been, undergoing progressive development at public expense, for the above named reasons.

Keystone Avenue was recently improved to a minimum adequacy for the safe and expeditious movement of existing traffic, which minimum was the best that available funds could afford.

Granting of parking privileges along Keystone Avenue will minimize the benefits which should accrue from past expenditures of public funds, and will constitute a direct disservice to many thousands of motoring citizens for the limited benefit of several score of citizens.

Granting parking privileges along Keystone Avenue will confirm the existence of a climate in which the general public, and their appointed servants, will be severely hampered in the orderly, efficient and reliable planning and creation of capital improvements for the net benefit of all our citizens.

For such reasons as these, the Bureau of Traffic Engineering opposes the passage of General Ordinance No. 20, 1963.
