

A STRANGE NURSE.

On June 1, 1908, there was born on the farm of Will H. Sedam, near Moores Hill, Indiana, a litter of kittens, only one of which lived. The mother of these kittens died August 1. The surviving kitten began to try to nurse the sire. Soon milk began to flow a little and as the nursing continued the milk increased in its flow. The sire soon had two well developed nipples doing service. The kitten lagged a little in its growth for a while, but soon was in good condition and continued to do well. This is the first instance of the kind that has come under my observation.
