

PROGRAM OF THE SECTION ON GEOLOGY AND GEOGRAPHY

J. E. SWITZER, Chairman

1. Features of a small cavern at Marengo, Crawford County, Indiana. Marion M. Fidler, Indiana University.
2. Karst windows. William P. von Osinski, Indiana University.
3. The Ginkgo petrified forest. Viva Dutton Martin, Arsenal Technical High School, Indianapolis.
4. Notes on Indiana diamonds. Frank B. Wade, Shortridge High School, Indianapolis.
5. The grinding of pebbles in a karst mill. Clyde A. Malott, Indiana University.
6. Regional contests in death rates in Indiana (Study No. 3). Stephen S. Visher, Indiana University.
7. Stratigraphic problems of the Salem limestone. Paris B. Stockdale, Ohio State University.
8. Recent studies on forests and stream flow. Fred J. Breeze, Fort Wayne.
9. Probable worm castings (coprolites) in the Salem limestone of Indiana. Robert R. Shrock, University of Wisconsin.
10. Two new Pleistocene marine Mollusca. Ernest R. Smith, DePauw University.

The following papers had exhibits of specimens or charts: 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7.