

PROGRAM OF THE SECTION ON PSYCHOLOGY

Chairman: H. H. REMMERS, Purdue University

1. *The psychology of Charles Darwin. Sister Mary Frederick, C. S. C., St. Mary's College, Notre Dame.

2. *A proposed program of research in attitudes. H. H. Remmers, Purdue University.

3. Further conditions of transfer of training. R. W. Bruce, Wabash College.

4. *Psychology and its twofold relation. Sister Mary Verda, C. S. C., St. Mary's College, Notre Dame.

5. The learning performance of white rats in temporal maze patterns. Maurice R. Graney and Otis C. Trimble, Purdue University.

6. The "recognition spans" of "good" and "poor" readers: A comparative study. Otis C. Trimble and Dorothy H. Asperger, Purdue University.

7. Maze learning in water snakes. Wardell B. Pomeroy and W. N. Kellogg, Indiana University.

8. Relation between the multiple correlation technique and Thurstone multiple factor theory. Merrill F. Roff, Indiana University.

---

*Papers published in this volume.