INDIANA HEALTH LAW REVIEW

(ISSN 1549-3199)

Content. The Indiana Health Law Review publishes articles submitted by academics, practitioners, and students on the topics of health law and policy. The scope includes bioethics, malpractice liability, managed care, anti-trust, health care organizations, medical-legal research, legal medicine, and food and drug law. The Indiana Health Law Review will be published twice during the 2011-12 academic year.

Disclaimer. The ideas, views, opinions, and conclusions expressed in articles appearing in this publication are those of the authors and not those of the Indiana Health Law Review or Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law.

Subscriptions. The current subscription rate is $20.00 for two issues (domestic mailing). Unless the Business Office receives notice to the contrary, all subscriptions will be renewed automatically. Claims for non-receipt of the current year's issues must be made within six months of the mailing date. Address changes must be received at least one month prior to publication to ensure prompt delivery and must include the old and new addresses and the proper zip code.

Manuscripts. The Indiana Health Law Review invites submission of unsolicited manuscripts. All citations should conform to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (19th ed. 2010). Manuscripts should be double-spaced with standard one-inch margins. The Indiana Health Law Review, as a matter of policy, promotes the use of gender-neutral language, and alternate use of the female or male pronoun is intended to refer to both female and male.

Citation. Cite this publication as IND. HEALTH L. REV.

Indiana International & Comparative Law Review

The Indiana International & Comparative Law Review, published by the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law since 1991, is a student-edited law journal that provides a forum for the discussion and analysis of contemporary issues in public and private international law. The Review publishes articles by prominent legal scholars, practitioners, and policy makers around the world, as well as student-written notes and comments.

The Review is published twice annually, with a symposium issue devoted to a specific topic of international or comparative law published intermittently. Past symposium topics have included political and social aspects of Italian law, various aspects of Chinese law, and international terrorism in the twenty-first century.
